OGDEN WINS FOURTH GAME

Ogden won the fourth game of the series from Helena Friday afternoon, the score being 9 to 4. Mears started to pitch for Helena. He allowed two runs in the third and in the fourth he filled the bases and then gave Byrd the ball. Byrd tossed one over and Schimpff hit it for two sacks, cleaning the bases and putting over four runs in a bunch. In the seventh inning the locals got two more runs in. Helena didn't get a start in the game. Knight pitched for the Ogden team and allowed 12 hits. The locals got the same number of hits from the Helena pitchers. Wessler made the only home run of the game. The score:

MISSOURI AGAIN LEADS.

Zamlock pitched a tight game Friday afternoon, and Missoula won from Great Falls by a score of 8 to 1, going to the head of the percentage column again with little difficulty. Bitroff pitched for the pennant winners. Perrine and Changnon, of Missoula each got a home run. Bitroff and Zamlock each fanned 5 men.

BUTTE DEFEATS SKYSCRAPERS.

Pitching for Butte Friday afternoon, Klein held the Salt Lake bunch down to one hit and one run on a scratch until the eighth inning and then he blew up, letting four runs get past him before he surrendered the mound to Dell. The score was a tie in the eighth, but Butte got two runs in the last frame while Salt Lake was unable to make but one. The score was 7 to 6 and it dropped the Skyscrapers back to second place in the percentage column. The score:

Denver, June 29.—"Sandy" Griswold, sporting editor of the Omaha World-Herald, Robert Edgren, sporting editor of the New York World, and F. C. Hurley, an Omaha sport enthusiast, with Hurley's chauffeur, while enroute in an automobile to Las Vegas, N. M., to attend the Johnson-Flynn fight, plunged into Stanley Lake near Brighton early yesterday when the driver dozed and failed to take a turn in the road. The car plunged into fifteen feet of water and is still at the bottom of the lake. The men swam to shore.

The four passengers talked to Denver, a distance of nineteen miles. They were neither hats, coats nor shoes when they arrived at a local hotel, their garments having gone to the bottom of the lake in the car.

STOVALL PLANS TO BUILD NEW TEAM. St. Louis, June 29.—Manager George Stovall of the St. Louis Browns, in his announced plans to build a new team of youngsters, already has several foundation stones for his structure, an one of them is Derrill Pratt, who came up from the Montgomery team of the Southern league. Stovall has had some trouble, however, in making this stone fit. Pratt came as a second baseman, but in that position he has not shown what was expected. But if he has fallen in that particular he has made good as a hitter, and on being shifted to the outfield demonstrated that he would do as a made-over player. Pratt has much to learn, but he is young, last year being practically his first in professional company, and he is a certainty in the new Browns. If Colonel Hedges' scouts can dig up a few more like him in their searching, Stovall will be glad to see his hopes of a new and better team realized.

SUTER AND RAFERTY ARE DISPOSED OF. San Francisco, June 29.—Cal Ewing announced the sale of two of the Seals this afternoon. Harry Suter was disposed of to the Portland Coast league team and Tom Rafferty was sold back to the Wilkes-Barre club in the New York State league, from which club he joined the Seals.

This is the first of the wedding out process in the local team. Before it is completed the fans will hardly recognize the Seals if the present plans are lived up to.

"Mose" Suter has been slow in rounding into shape for the local management, but when he is right he will doubtless be a valuable man on the Beaver squad.

Rafferty's work has not been satisfactory at all times, and as the Wilkes-Barre team valued his services more highly than Ewing and Frank Ish, they decided to sell him to the club from which he came.

ADAMS FANS THIRTY-TWO. Scout Kelschner, sunshoeing in Pennsylvania for the Browns, has landed a pitcher named Adams from Albright college who is said to have struck out thirty-two men in two games.

JOHNSON TO RETIRE AFTER LABOR DAY. Jack Johnson states that just as soon as he disposes of Jim Flynn he will take on all comers in a fight a week until Labor day. "Then, me for my gilded cage in Chicago," quoths the champion. "I will be a has-been after Labor day. But not before then."

John O. Tait, of the Denver Sporting man, who is Tom Corbett at the Flynn-Johnson attraction, or, in superior English, serving as the official betting commissioner, still has plenty of 10 to 4 money. However, he clings to his original belief and prophesies that the betting will be 10 to 7, if not tighter, the day of the fight.

Flynn and Johnson are getting their full quota of the bug letters. One wise Chicago gent slipped Lill' Artha the information recently that he had constructed a training apparatus that would permit the dusky one to lay in the feathers and go through a full course of work. By pulling chains and strings, Johnson could accomplish most everything from punching the bag to swinging Indian clubs.

HAYES CALLS OFF BOUT WITH NELSON. New York, June 29.—Being unable to come to an agreement on terms, Grover Hayes, the Chicago lightweight has called off his ten-round bout with Battline Nelson, which was to have been decided at Winnipeg, Canada, on the afternoon of July 4. It is said that the club officials only wanted to give Hayes a few hundred dollars for his services, while they were willing to hand Nelson $1,000 for his end.
